

RESIDENCE OF THE LATE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR

ERIC ARENDS

Wilhelminastreet, Oranjestad

A typical example of the one-storeyed houses found throughout the Aruban country-side, except for the modern aluminum glass shutters. Well conserved and still the residence of the Arends family. Fortunately not likely to be left to ruin or sold as so many of these houses have been in the past, only to be replaced by modern structures, without consideration of their architectural and historical value.
